

Please stop the sale of the Cablevision/RainbowLLC/Voom satellite to Echostar/Dish. This sale is detrimental to the growth of High definition programming. Voom provides the highest quality and most complete high definition programming available from any provider. The sale of this satellite to Echostar is not in the best interest of the public and should be denied.